Truman States He May Again Run For Office

If It'll Speed Peace,
President Is Willing To Make "Sacrifice"

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Sabath (D-Ill.) quoted President Truman today as saying he may be willing to make the "sacrifice" and seek re-election if he feels it will be necessary to speed the peace.

Sabath talked with reporters after a call on the President.

He said Truman told him the President's work "is a killing job" but that if he "actually felt he would be of aid and help to America and the world in bringing about a peace," in that case he would be willing to "sacrifice" himself and possibly shorten his life expectancy.

Sabath, 85 years old, is the chairman of the House Rules Committee.

Another White House caller, W. Stuart Symington, told reporters that he, Symington, is more interested in running for the Senate than he was before talking with Truman today.

Symington had said earlier in St. Louis that he would be interested in making the race for senator from Missouri if the President wanted him to. Symington, a veteran official of the Truman Administration, has just resigned as administrator of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

There has been some talk that Truman himself would like to be senator from Missouri again.

Symington said the President had not asked him to run, but he refused to say whether Truman had encouraged him to run. Asked pointblank if he would run, Symington countered by saying:

"I am going on a long vacation."

Sabath, reporting on his talk, said he asked Truman how soon he is going to give out a statement saying he is a candidate.

He said the President "gave me a number of reasons why he should not be a candidate, and told me it is a killing job, and that it killed Roosevelt."

British Pay Respects To King In London

LONDON (AP)—Through the hushed dignity of great Westminster Hall, the somberly clad people of Britain shuffled softly in reverent homage today past the body of King George VI.

Silent men bowed before the coffin and passed on. Silent women curtsied to the sovereign in death as they would in life.

High in the towers of the Palace of Westminster, Big Ben chimed its resounding notes marking the passage of each quarter hour.

As 8 a. m. tolled, the heavy iron-studded doors of the hammer-beamed hall swung slowly open.

The first to bare his head beneath the freezing wind and walk solemnly into the big stone hall was A. A. Pugh of Liverpool. He had waited on the steps for 13 hours to lead the mourning procession.

This 47-year-old citizen said he was "one of His Majesty's loyal subjects of the old type—not one of the moderns."

By the time the doors opened, more than 2,000 were waiting in patient line to pay respects to the King.

Race For Oscars Wide Open; Vivien Leigh Leading Field

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The movie world today learned the hopefuls in the annual Oscar derby and it shapes up as a wide open race. Only Vivien Leigh, who played the demented Southerner in "A Streetcar Named Desire," appeared to be a favorite among the top contenders. The English beauty has been tabbed a probable winner in advance predictions. It would be her second Oscar, since she was awarded one for playing another Southern belle in "Gone With the Wind."

She has strong competition. Also nominated for the best actress award are Katherine Hepburn in "The African Queen," Eleanor Parker in "Detective Story," Shelley Winters in "A Place in the Sun," and Jane Wyman in "The Blue Veil."

The race for the top honors among the actors looks like a hard fight among five Broadway-trained performers. Two veterans Humphrey Bogart (The African Queen) and Fredric March (Death of a Salesman) are pitted against three youngsters—Marlon Brando (A Streetcar Named Desire), Montgomery Clift (A Place in the Sun) and Arthur Kennedy (Bright Victory).

March would make academy history if he won the award for 1951. He would be the first star to win three Oscars. Walter Brennan has been awarded three, but as a supporting actor.

Contention for the best picture award is also unpredictable. The nominees are "An American in Paris," "Decision Before Dawn," "A Place in the Sun," "Quo Vadis" and "A Streetcar Named Desire."

"Streetcar" from Tennessee Williams' outspoken play of night in New Orleans' French Quarter, took top honors among the pictures, netting 12 nominations. "A Place in the Sun" was second with nine, and "Quo Vadis" won eight apiece. The naming of "An American in Paris" is noteworthy because musicals are seldom honored by the academy.

Other major nominations are: Best direction: John Huston in "The African Queen;" Vincent Minnelli in "An American in Paris;" William Wyler in "Detective Story;" George Stevens in "A Place in the Sun;" and Elia Kazan in "A Streetcar Named Desire."

United Nations soldiers today killed 96 Reds and wounded 130 in a fight near the Mundung Valley on the eastern Korean war front—the heaviest single action in weeks. Twelve more Reds were killed in probing attacks.

Weather Limits Bombing
An overcast sky held down fighter-bomber attacks in North Korea. By noon only about 80 planes had gone out to attack Red supply lines.

A briefing officer said Eighth Army soldiers inflicted 2,272 casualties on the Reds in the week ended last Thursday. The figure included 981 killed, 1,260 wounded and 31 captured. Allied casualties were not announced.

Fifth Air Force warplanes flew 585 bombing missions Monday. Bad flying weather limited Monday night's air action. Pilots reported 15 trucks destroyed.

Marine planes bombed troop centers, rail lines, roadways and Communist-occupied buildings. U. N. warships were active along both coasts.

700 At Town Hall Hear Church Leader

People Need Faith For Date With Destiny, Dr. Sockman Says

By JOSEPH KUPKA

Predicting the continuance of the cold war, Dr. Ralph Sockman, internationally famous Protestant churchman, told an estimated 700 persons at Monday night's Town Hall meeting no quick peace or World War III in the immediate future is likely. He spoke on the topic, "Date With Destiny."

Dr. Sockman said the world would undergo a long period of tension which will call for faith, a will to believe. Russia won't start a war because it knows America is much stronger and Soviet troops cannot be trusted outside their own nation's borders.

Says Russia Plays Bluff

"Russia is running a giant bluff. It is so far beneath us in destiny, there is no comparison. Responsibility of destiny is upon the United States," he stated.

While in Russia in 1946, Dr. Sockman observed that life there was on such a low level, it was obvious "communism had failed in that country." Lack of adequate food at the few crowded markets and poverty told the story of a people being sacrificed for military expediency.

The New York City pastor said the United States is "the strongest nation of the world because it has the best philosophy of life"—firm roots in the Constitution and a living democracy founded on the principles of Christianity.

Importance of the individual is the keystone of this philosophy, Turn to DR. SOCKMAN, Page 12

Governor Candidates Clash In Speeches

COLUMBUS (AP) — Two Republican aspirants for nomination for governor of Ohio took to the stump yesterday — and promptly clashed with each other in separate speeches.

State Sen. Roscoe W. Walcutt, in a speech before the Republican Club of Delphos said: "There is no place in the leadership of the Republican party for an apologist for the power-grabs by the New Deal and the Truman-Acheson regime."

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, in a Lincoln Day speech at Toledo, said: "Any division in the ranks of the Republican party in Ohio in this primary which might prove disastrous."

Walcutt didn't mention Taft, but observers thought they were talking about each other.

Walcutt is considered a party "regular." Taft is an officer in the Charterite faction in Cincinnati, composed of Democrats and independent Republicans.

Damascus Man's Father Bore Close Resemblance To Lincoln

"Did you know Abraham Lincoln—whose birthday we celebrate today and my father were honest-to-goodness doubles?" John Pelley, 85-year-old resident of nearby Damascus was talking.

Historians missed the story completely, he says. Even Lincoln himself was taken aback by the likeness between himself and the Rev. James Pelley of Brook County, Va.

"Father had quite an experience with the man who freed the slaves," said Pelley. He pointed to a full-length picture of Lincoln hanging on the wall of his living room.

"Truth is, the story involves that picture. Father was a circuit rider in Brook County, Va. Being a preacher, people were always asking his counsel on lots of things, even some legal matters."

"One time, a Mr. Atkinson came to father and asked him a question about some land Atkinson owned in Illinois. Father listened to his story and told him he'd better get on his horse, ride to Illinois and hire himself a good lawyer."

"Well, the man got father to go along. In Springfield, Ill., they were directed to a small law office. At first sight, the Springfield lawyer and father burst into laughing. The lawyer seemed embarrassed and amused; father said he stammered in bewilderment himself.

"Both wore flowing coats, chin whiskers, shaved upper lips and

Air Force Backs Jet Pilot Policy

Ace Being Shot Down
Causes Controversy

U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea (AP) — An Air Force spokesman today defended the policy of keeping all jet pilots—including aces—in Korea until they have finished their normal tour of 100 combat missions.

That was the Air Force stand on the controversy that has raged since Maj. George A. Davis Jr. was shot down Sunday. Davis had destroyed 11 MIGs and three Red bombers in 59 missions.

The spokesman said Davis was a hero, but that statements that he should have been sent home were likely to make him a figure of controversy instead.

Three Aces Sent Home
The first three American jet pilots to become aces in the Korean War were returned to the U. S. after their fifth kill. Five kills makes a pilot an ace.

The three are Capt. James J. Barba of McKinney, Tex.; Capt. Ralph D. Gibson of Mt. Carmel, Ill., and Capt. Richard D. Becker of Fleetwood, Pa., and Ft. Monroe, Va.

In Lubbock, Tex., Mrs. Davis said her husband should have been sent home the same as the first three.

She said Davis recently wrote her, "Things can't go on like they are. We lose so many planes and so many men. The MIGs are so much better than the Sabres that something must be done."

Mrs. Davis Bitter

Mrs. Davis, who is expecting her third child in May, said, "If I could feel that he has lost his life for some good reason I could feel better about it. But this is a war without reason. I would like to ask a full-scale investigation of why he was left in Korea."

In Washington, Rep. Mahon (D-Texas) asked the air force to investigate thoroughly and report to him on circumstances surrounding Davis' death. He said Air Force officers at the Pentagon had promised to look into the matter.

The Fifth Air Force spokesman said policy requires the completion of 100 missions in Korea, but that the first three aces were sent home to instruct other airmen being readied for Korean combat.

"We don't send a ground soldier home when he kills 10 Communist," the spokesman said. "The same principle applies to jet pilots."

ESCAPES FIERY DEATH—

Nancy Taylor, 22, stewardess of the National Airlines DC-6 that crashed into a 60-family Elizabeth, N. J., apartment house is the only crew-member to come out alive. A passerby rescued her as she hung upside down from the safety belt. Said the uninjured Miss Taylor, "All of a sudden the engines sputtered and stopped and then we went down." Thirty-one persons were killed.

Death Toll 31 In Plane Crash

Future Of Newark
Airport In Balance

ELIZABETH, N. J. (AP) — Nerve-shattered Elizabeth residents—numbered and bewildered after three major air catastrophes here—riveted their attention on a meeting to determine Newark Airport's future.

The sprawling and once-bustling airport, shuttered since yesterday's crash of a National Airlines plane that snuffed out 31 lives, now is the scene of ghost-like silence.

Its future hangs in the balance and will be discussed in New York today at a meeting between the port of New York Authority and officials of 17 airlines. Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York have been advised of the session. The Port Authority has operated the $53,000,000 field since 1947.

Wary local residents, terrified and furious because of the three crashes within less than two months, wondered whether the close-down order would last.

"In my opinion, the present Newark airport is dead," said Rep. Canfield (R-N. J.).

The death toll from the crash yesterday of the four-engined DC-6 stands at 31, 27 of them plane passengers. Forty persons—mostly plane passengers—were injured, many of them seriously.

Harold de Fiore of Lynbrook, N. Y., a passenger on the plane, died in Elizabeth General Hospital last night. He was on a honeymoon with his bride, who was reported in good condition.

This brought the combined death toll of the three tragedies to 117.

In the other two crashes, one of the planes—as in yesterday's disaster—was wrecked within minutes after taking off from Newark Airport on Dec. 16. The other nosedived Jan. 22 as it groped its way to a landing on the field in fog and rain.

No Printers Bid For Ballot Job

The Columbiana County Election Board went into the open market today to buy ballots for the May 6 primary election after printers ignored a call for competitive bids.

The deadline for filing bids passed Monday afternoon without an offer.

It is the second time within six months a call for ballot bids has gone unanswered. Printers also ignored a call for offers on ballots for the Nov. 6 general election.

Meanwhile, the board awarded a $3,175 contract to the Columbus Blank Book Co., to furnish poll books, poll lists and other supplies for both the primaries and the general election. The cost figures out to $12.50 a precinct.

Road Official Tells Chamber Of Developments

Says Contract For
First 20-Mile Link
To Be Let By Fall

Salem district's crumbling highways and streets will be relieved of the major source of the destruction, heavy trucks and streams of traffic from the Pennsylvania Turnpike, by March, 1953.

This was the assurance of S. H. Parker, assistant to the president of the Ohio Highway and Turnpike Association who spoke to about 50 Chamber of Commerce members noon yesterday in the Lape Hotel.

The first 20 miles of the Ohio Turnpike should be completed by that date, Parker said, drawing the crushing traffic from area roads never meant by builders for heavy weight loads.

Contracts By October

Contracts for construction will be signed before next October Parker said. The 20-mile stretch removing the burden caused by heavy trucks on this district's roads will be the first work completed, he stated. The entire project should be complete by September, 1954, he predicted.

Parker agreed with statements by Gov. Lausche that Pennsylvania had not lived up to an agreement made between the two states' turnpike commissions last March that Pennsylvania would shunt heavy trucks off the super highway at the Homewood interchange.

He did not agree as to the reason for Pennsylvania's action, however, as Lausche hinted it was done to increase revenue and Parker said the trucks had been allowed to continue to the end of the highway because the Homewood interchange was not complete.

Pennsylvania officials deny truck weight was even discussed at the March meeting and say no such agreement was made.

Parker said because of the delay in completion of the Homewood interchange, trucks, hunting the shortest route, go to Petersburg on highways never intended to carry large weight loads. These roads have quickly been devastated, he said, and Ted Kauer, state highway director, after personally viewing the breakdown, ordered a 25 per cent

Ridgway Flays Reds' Taking Of Jap Boats

TOKYO (AP) — Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today sent a sharply worded note to Soviet authorities, denouncing Russian seizure of Japanese fishing vessels.

The Allied supreme commander accused the Reds of grabbing some 178 fishing craft in violation of the occupation agreement, "contrary to all principles of international law and custom."

Ridgway charged the Reds confiscated 29 of the boats and wrecked one. He said 33 disappeared without a trace; one escaped and the other 114 eventually were released.

He also accused the Russians of holding "many of the fishermen captive, subjecting them to prolonged interrogations, most of which have had nothing to do with the alleged violations of the fishing area but on the contrary have been solely for the purpose of securing political, economic and military information concerning conditions in Japan."

He also said the Russians tried to levy fines in U. S. dollars against some captains "on the totally unsupported grounds of their having 'plundered' fish in Soviet territorial waters."

Church-State Issue

Controversy Rages On Plan To Send Envoy To Vatican

By GEORGE CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Controversy is crackling around President Truman's plan to send an ambassador to the Vatican. The move, yet to be put before the Senate for confirmation, has stirred up a storm of Protestant opposition—and inter-church friction.

"The President has driven a decisive wedge into our national life," said Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam. Scores of other churchmen have echoed these words.

Most major religious publications in the country have entered into the dispute. Roman Catholic writers defend the action; Protestants denounce it.

Little stacks of pamphlets arguing the question have appeared on tables and in churches and Sunday schools across the land. Lectures and protest rallies on the subject are common.

The move has been the basis of broad attacks on Catholicism. Most of the "pros" and "cons" have centered around this country's deeply rooted tradition: "Separation of church and state."

HERE ARE JUST a few of the arguments, as advanced by various Catholic and Protestant spokesmen, on what diplomatic relations with the Vatican would mean:

1. Against—It would show religious preference, and give the Roman Catholic church a special status with the U. S. government. For—No preference is involved. It would simply facilitate relations with a unique church establishment, the only one which desires or is in a position to receive an envoy.

2. Against—By recognizing the pope as head of a foreign state, it would make Catholic priests agents of a foreign power, and put cardinals in the dubious position of having helped elect a foreign sovereign.

For—Priests owe no political allegiance whatever to the Pope, but only recognize his guidance in faith and morals.

3. Against: It's absurd to say, as the President does, that the mission would be merely to Vatican State, a tiny, 108-acre strip with about 1,000 residents. Actually, it would be to the Pope, as head of a church.

For—True, the Vatican's international significance derives from the Holy Father's moral influence. But foreign policy must consider not only a state's size, but its importance in the world community.

4. AGAINST—If the Vatican has information valuable to the United States in fighting Communism, it could be relayed to our ambassador to Italy, without considerations of diplomatic protocol.

For—If protocol is of little concern, then there is no valid objection to abiding by it to make cooperation flow more smoothly. Effective diplomacy requires clear channels of approach.

5. Against—To send an ambassador to the Vatican on grounds it is an information center would indicate the Catholic Church is a network of spies. For—Espionage is beyond the remotest concern of the church. It is fantastic to imply priests are out counting guns and airfields. Naturally they are aware of sociological conditions of hunger, disease, oppressions, of moral attitudes and needs. It is in this human and spiritual realm the church is informed, and in this realm, the best peace efforts lie.

Protestants claim President Truman went back on a promise not to make such an appointment. They cite a letter, dated Aug. 4, 1948, signed by his secretary, saying the mission of Myron C. Taylor, his personal envoy, would be terminated.

THE NEWSCHART ABOVE shows monthly pay and allowances to be received by selected ranks of the Army under the new 10 per cent pay boost bill already passed by the House. Members of the Navy, Air Force and Marines of corresponding grades will receive same boost. Allowances for enlisted men are figured for two dependents, and will vary with number of dependents. Rates for officers are figured for at least one dependent. In all cases, pay and allowances will be increased by "extras" such as flight pay, hazardous duty pay and increases for length of service.

Taylor, first appointed by the late President Roosevelt in 1940, resigned in 1950.

A State Department spokesman said there "is no question" that having an ambassador at the Vatican will strengthen the United States international position.

He said 43 countries, which now have diplomatic representation at the Vatican, "think it's useful, and they're not dummies."

"France, Great Britain—all of them—tried to gain access to the Vatican through the back door, and they all had trouble," the State Department representative said. "We've now found out it doesn't work, so we've come to this as a practical, necessary thing."

Of the 43 countries represented at the Vatican, 20 predominantly Catholic countries have full ambassadors. Some, like France, Brazil and Belgium, have church-state separation. Twenty countries, including Great Britain and most Protestant nations, send ministers (which rank below ambassadors). Three send only charge d'affaires. The United States would be the only predominantly Protestant country to have a full ambassador.

THERE IS A 100-YEAR-OLD precedent, of a sort, for having a U. S. ambassador at the Vatican. In 1848, President James K. Polk sent a charge d'affaires, and later a minister to the Papal States.

The move caused a furor of anti-clerical speeches in Congress. The mission ended 19 years later in 1867 after Congress refused to appropriate money to support it on grounds the Vatican closed some Protestant churches in Italy.

Protestants, however, note that in those days the Papal States comprised a major part of central Italy, an area of some 16,000 square miles with more than 3,000,000 population. This was before revolutionists led by Garibaldi overthrew papal rule in 1870, and sent the Pope into seclusion for 59 years until Benito

Women Take Note: Ideal Hubby Found

BLUFFTON (AP) — Just bear in mind that it's leap year, girls. If you are a working girl and your income is large enough to support a husband, Bluffton College has just the answer. If the college advertised such matters, the advertising might read:

"Available—one eligible sophomore, former football player, 195 pounds, six feet tall, 20 years old, can cook."

Note that last item: "Can cook."

The cooking cavalier in question is Richard Lee of Sebring, a member of the Bluffton College class "Foundations of Family Living." About half the class members are men.

Why are men interested in taking a home economics course? Well, the men say they get two things that interest them—

child care and cooking. The course deals in various phases of family life—the concerns and troubles of the normal family and remedies for such troubles. Of the eight-student class, five are women. The other male students are Clinton Chapman of Bluffton, who is married, and father of one child, and Herbert Rose of Oakwood, who already is "spoken for."

That leaves Lee the only eligible bachelor of the lot who already has proved his adeptness with cooking utensils.

Lee took part in two big cooking projects this year—an Italian meal to which members of the Allen County Home Economics Association were invited, and a candy sale last December. The students, including Lee, made more than 300 pounds of fudge and fondant which they sold to Bluffton residents.

16 Million $2 Bills Still Printed Yearly

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you occasionally worry about what happened to the $2 bill, stop fretting.

There are 33,742,133 of them now in circulation, and the government is printing them at the rate of 16 million a year.

These are some of the $2-bill statistics presented to the House Appropriations Committee by Mrs. Georgia Neece Clark, treasurer of the United States, and Walter L. Funk, her budget officer.

Rep. James (R-Pa.) said he wondered why the government kept making $2 bills.

A lot of people seem to want them and ask for them, especially New Englanders, said Mrs. Clark. Funk contributed an economic note of his own: It costs half as much to print one $2 bill as two $1 bills.

How "big" should government be?

Lincoln was President at a time when the federal government had to take away from its citizens more rights and responsibilities than ever before.

But he didn't like it. He believed, with the writers of the Constitution and the Declaration, that our government should protect people's independence, not push people around.

"In all that the people can individually do as well for themselves, government ought not to interfere," Lincoln once said.

Lincoln never let Americans forget that. He kept reminding the nation that the government's vast wartime powers must be only temporary.

He made powerful enemies. For there are always those who want to see government run things — and run people — permanently.

We have them today. They think up all kinds of reasons why the federal government should take over this or that business, industry or service. They never say they want socialism. Maybe they don't even realize it. But that's actually what they propose.

Most Americans don't want socialism any more than you do. The job is to recognize it — and halt it — no matter what disguise it wears.

The people who plan and work for a socialistic U.S.A. know that permanent control of a few key industries and services will give government the power to take over just about everything. One of the key industries that they're trying to take over is electric light and power. That's why we bring this warning to you.

PENN-OHIO UNIVERSITY

Salem Branch Makes Statement:

The Salem branch of Penn-Ohio University is a new college in this community. SALEM COLLEGE is Penn-Ohio University in Salem.

The old Salem Business College folded up in the summer of 1950. We purchased a part of its equipment. SALEM COLLEGE never had any connection whatever with the defunct Salem Business College. This is a new unit of Penn-Ohio University; a new college with a new name. Any stories to the contrary are false and vicious propaganda.

SALEM COLLEGE of Penn-Ohio University is a collegiate institution, with a Business School and a Dressmaking School in operation. We also operate an Adult High School for those who desire to win a high school diploma.

Our organization and methods are along university lines. Our teachers are expertly trained in their subjects, experienced in their fields, and in teaching. They are the best in this section of the country.

The work here is guided by Garland A. Bricker, a former professor in education at Ohio State and at Syracuse universities. He founded Penn-Ohio University at Youngstown over ten years ago. It is a non-profit institution backed by the Penn-Ohio Educational Foundation, an Ohio corporation not for profit. That is why our tuition is so low.

Dr. Bricker is an experienced college executive, who has been listed in "Who's Who in America" for over 20 years for his achievements. His books are used in colleges of this and foreign English-speaking countries. He has organized this university and its units along modern practical lines. Our students and graduates are received at par by leading colleges and universities. Our university methods are modified by individualized instruction in small groups. We have more calls for our trainees than we can supply. University students and college graduates have come here for training.

Our students go far beyond ordinary high school youth, because they are older and better trained. Our product right here in Salem proves this! Nowhere can young adults find better courses than those we offer. Our students must work hard to master their assignments here; disgruntled drop-outs are those who have been unable to meet the requirements. Our satisfied and finished students are our best recommendation; ask them!

SALEM COLLEGE is Salem's Opportunity; may Salem community live up to it! Watch the classified ads in the Salem News for our announcements.

READ THIS: "I can truly say I learned more under Mrs. Bricker's teaching than I learned in four years of my business courses in high school."—Quoted from a student's letter. She has been in SALEM COLLEGE two 12-week terms, and expects to continue as soon as the weather moderates. "I surely did enjoy going to school," she says. Letter available for inspection on request.

Challenge To The Chamber

THE SALEM Chamber of Commerce, as a business bureau, is functioning quite well.
But as a Chamber of Commerce it needs to grow out of its kneepants.

Four years ago, under the able organization leadership of its first president, E. M.
Stephenson, the Chamber came into being.
He sensed the need for an active Chamber of Commerce to help Salem meet its challenging problems and to grow—commercially, industrially and in civic stature.

Four years have passed. Most of the problems which the city wrestled with at the outset, still are with us today—unsolved Traffic bottlenecks and parking facilities for downtown shoppers are two of them.

And now, for the first time in its history,
the City of Salem is going to have an inexhaustible water supply. Completion of the new reservoir near Guilford Lake and state permission to use water from the lake itself
should awaken Chamber of Commerce directors to the bright prospects of attracting new industries to this city.

Factory sites are available. Railroad and trucking transportation is excellent. The water supply, which has been a deterrent in the past, is now more than ample. The city has fine schools and churches. Recreation facilities for our youths, we're sorry to say, are not adequate.

All this rings a challenge to the Chamber of Commerce as it embarks upon its new year.
Our congratulations to the C. of C.'s new president, Lloyd Gordon. We're confident of his ability to steer the Chamber through one of its best years.

Sen. Bricker's Vigilance

SPONSORSHIP by 54 senators of Sen. Bricker's proposed constitutional amendment to protect civil rights and U.S. sovereignty has struck a substantial blow for freedom.

Its immediate effect is to make certain that no treaty can be sneaked past the Senate
unless it first has been certified by at least 54 of the members of the present Senate.

Its long-range effect is to make probable that the same constitutional security which all domestic laws must undergo will be turned on all treaties.

Sen. Bricker's proposal would bring that about. It would prohibit any treaty on executive agreement affecting the citizenship
rights protected by the Constitution. "No one under any circumstances could meddle with an American citizen's guarantee of free speech free religion, a free press, protection from
search and seizure, right of trial by jury,
protection of private property, etc.

There will be some who will ridicule Sen.
Bricker and protest that no one intends to meddle with the guarantees; that there is no clear and present danger. That may be so.

But the price of liberty is eternal vigilance. Somewhere between the air-brone ideas of those who would surrender American sovereignty in the foolish hope of getting something in return and those who would quit
hoping to get anything in return is a formula
under which the United States can cooperate with its neighbors without surrendering any
of its people's rights.

Sen. Bricker's proposal would define that middle ground.

Lincoln Wouldn't Know Himself

WHEN Abraham Lincoln closed his eyes
and was claimed for the ages, there began a process of selective remembering which would have astonished the humble man who was his beneficiary.

Lincoln wouldn't know himself today.
There is a moral in that.

Greatness in human character, like the height of a mountain, can be seen only in perspective.

The Emancipator was the most cordially hated man of his day. Even among those who stood with him, he was the butt of heavy-handed ridicule.

Scarcely anyone subscribed to his policies in their entirety. It was only in the flush of victory after the end of the Civil War that his fellow citizens had their first inkling of his heroic stature.

For all but a few of them, it was easy to reject the inkling. There was nothing heroic about Abraham Lincoln in appearance or behavior. It was only in perspective that his fellow men could see why integrity of purpose, kindness and humility had given
America—and the world—a man for the ages.

There may be another one like him some time. If so, he will not be recognized until his integrity finally has outlasted the criticism of his opponents and detractors.

Only one person in 300,000 is struck by lightning—but there's always that freshly waxed kitchen floor.

One thing sure to produce wind is getting a man to run for office.

Egyptian Uproar

It Centers Over British Base at Ismailia

WASHINGTON
KEY TO the trouble in Egypt
may be found in the huge
British military base at Ismailia.

It is located on Lake Timsa,
about half way between Port
Said and Suez, northern and southern terminals of the Suez Canal.

It is commonly referred to as the Canal Zone Base. The British now have some 50,000 troops stationed there.

More than that the base area
contains warehouses and repair
shops which make it the supply
center and staging area for all British forces operating in the Middle and Far Eastern theaters.

If any new war were to break
out in this area, the Canal Zone Base at Ismailia would be the most important supply hub and headquarters. It served as such a center in both world wars.

Any Middle Eastern Defense
Command created by the Allied non-Communist powers to correspond to General Eisenhower's North Atlantic Treaty command
would have to be built around this huge installation which the British maintain.

When the Egyptians stage their demonstrations and start making demands for the British to get off their sacred soil, what they are really shouting about is the military base at Ismailia.

There has been a lot of misunderstanding over what the Egyptian nationalists really wanted.

One impression has been that the Egyptians wanted full control of the Suez Canal. The canal is really run by an Egyptian operating company, today.

It is owned by a French government holds 295,000 out of 625-000 shares.

But the charter of this company
will expire in 1967, and the canal will then be automatically become the property of the Egyptian government.

BRITAIN guaranteed the defense of the Suez Canal for 20 years under the treaty of 1936.
This was important to Britain as the canal was its lifeline.

The Egyptians now think they are competent to defend the canal without British help. The fact that Egyptian forces didn't do too
well in their war against Israel
a couple of years ago is conveniently overlooked.

The Egyptians also think they are competent to take over operation of the huge military repair shops at Ismailia. They are now manned by some 15,000 highly skilled British technicians.

The general belief of competent experts, however, is that the Egyptians are not ready, either militarily or technologically, to assume sole responsibility for the defense of the Suez Canal and the land bridge between Asia
and Africa.

From a historical point of view
Egyptian demonstrations against British imperialism have been going on since 1882.

That was when American,
British and French naval vessels
appeared in Alexandria harbor to restore order. The British invited American and French governments to join in a protectorate over Egypt—then under Turkish domination.

When the Americans and French declined, the British assumed responsibility alone.

EGYPTIAN political parties
since that time have differed with each other only in the increasing degrees with which they all hated the British, and agitated to kick them out.

This has also served as something of a political smoke screen
to hide the fact that the Egyptian leaders had no program for the development of their own country.

With a small minority of the Egyptian population highly literate, the ruling Pasha class of land-owners has for years lived
off the backs of the poverty-
stricken Fellahin, the farmer
caste.

To have raised the standard of living would have destroyed the privileges of the upper social stratum.

Over-population has multiplied
the discontent. Discontent has been whipped up by both the super-nationalists and a Communist underground, led by dissatisfied
lawyers, disgruntled labor leaders and young students.

Egyptian land reform is just beginning. The United States has a $55,000 Point Four technical assistance program also just beginning.

Its aim is to help direct improvement of agriculture housing,
transportation, natural resource development and social services.

But all such approaches may be too late to do much good. And they do not answer the whipped-
up anti-British sentiment.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Facts On Cholesterol

"IS it true," asks Mrs. G. "that cholesterol is the cause of hardening of the arteries? What should one eat when troubled
with high blood pressure?"

Worded another way, Mrs.
G. asks whether a diet in which
most of the foods containing cholesterol are eliminated will prevent, or halt,
hardening of the arteries.

We do know that some people
have more cholesterol in their blood than others and that certain foods (eggs and butter, for example) contain a good deal of this substance.

But, it is not absolutely definite that those with a lot of cholesterol in the blood are more likely to have deposits in their arteries which lead to hardening,
nor is it certain that cutting down on the high cholesterol
foods will reduce the amount of this substance in the blood.

Cholesterol is a fat-like substance, which, together with calcium salts, is often deposited in the walls of the blood vessels

and which may in time interfere with the normal flow of blood.

But just what causes cholesterol to be deposited in some people
and not in others—or more rapidly in some than in others—is not entirely clear.

At present it cannot be claimed absolutely that any diet will enable a person to avoid hardening
of the arteries, though that time
may come. In cutting out eggs, butter or other foods containing a lot of cholesterol there are some valuable nutritional elements
lost.

What is needed is more knowledge, and this many research workers are seeking with great energy. But at present it seems that a low cholesterol diet for the average grownup would be going
a little farther than is justified
by what is known and it is still
of doubtful value even for someone who already has hardening
of the arteries and high blood pressure.

Write To That Serviceman In Korea

By DAVID LAWRENCE

TWO MONTHS ago this correspondent published a letter from Private David Fry in Korea to a family in Cincinnati telling of the severe fighting in which he had been engaged. The soldier commented wistfully on the fact that he had not received letters from anybody except Mr. and Mrs. Howard S.
Ulmer, who were not relatives
but friends he had met in the orphanage where he grew up and lived till he entered the army.

It so happens that Private Fry
has no parents, having been an orphan since he was three years old. He enlisted in the army at the age of 17. So this writer thought it might be helpful to quote the letter in full, as it contained some significant paragraphs on the fighting which many Americans seem to have overlooked. In fact, to too many Americans nowadays the war in Korea is a "forgotten war."

The response to David Fry's letter—which he never knew
would be published but which his friends in Cincinnati permitted me to quote—was astonishingly large. This correspondent has just received the following letter from Lieut. Col.
Frank E. Stillman, Jr., commander of the 7th Cavalry:

"Having read your column
'Washington Comment' dated 11
December concerning Private David Fry, I wish to take this opportunity to add the final paragraph. As commander of the 7th Cavalry Regiment, of which
Pvt. Fry is a member, I am delighted to say that your article brought immediate and most gratifying results. To date, Pvt.
Fry has received three and one half jam-packed bags of letter
mail, with more apparently on the way.

"There is at least one letter
from every state in the union.
They range from boy scout troops
to national societies. It appears that every letter contains a small portion of the American heart

sent to a one-man representative of the men in Korea.

"On behalf of the men of the 7th Cavalry, may I take this belated opportunity to wish you a happy and successful new year."

The 7th Cavalry has since left
the front for a rest and private Fry is now with the 45th Division, still in the fighting zone.
He writes to the Ulmer family
under date of January 15th:

"Just a few lines to let you know I am still alive. I would like you to write to David Lawrence and tell him this:

"I would like very much if you would write in your paper
and thank all of the good people who wrote me. I would love to do it myself, but I am very busy.
I am with the 45th Division.
However, the fighting is not too much just now. So if you will try to thank these people—all these good people—I would be very happy. Tell them I certainly had a merry Christmas and so far a very happy new year, too."

Private Fry is just one of many tens of thousands of boys out there in Korea—most of whom have relatives, of course—but
from nearly every one of them
comes the same plea—they want mail. They want to keep in touch with life in America, for whose safety they are fighting. Any moment they may pass from this life to a world beyond—but with-
in them all is the never-ending
hope that they may soon come back home again.

It is a little thing—to remember to write a letter to those men in Korea—a little thing that takes so little time from the customary days of those of us who are back here in comfortable homes. So to the many persons who wrote to David Fry, this correspondent, too, extends appreciation and hopes some day
he will meet David Fry in person. With good luck, he should be back in the states around his 20th birthday next July.

The New Rulers

By TRUMAN TWILL

ONCE upon a time . . .
Every girl dreams of being a beautiful princess in a castle,
with a handsome prince by her side.

And of riding in a royal coach
drawn by beautiful horses, with plumes, and coachmen in livery,
wearing high hats and braid;

And the prospect of reigning
one day as a gracious and good queen, with millions of loyal subjects being thankful for their wonderful monarch.

Something happened to the dream.

There was no envy of Princess Elizabeth and her handsome prince as they returned to England to accept the responsibility of the British throne.

There was more of pity for these young people called on to bind themselves forever to the rituals of government and religion which constitute the authority of the British monarchy.

The princess, now Queen Elizabeth II, is welcome to all the privileges of her high position. No one else wants them.
Noblesse oblige is dandy, but the women of England and their cousins in America will take vanilla, thanks.

They will take their right to say what they think and to do as they please. They will take their bargain-hunting, their baby sitters and their ruffled curtains.
They will take and cherish
their hen clubs, telephone gossip,
recipe-swapping and informality.
They will even cherish, bless
their added heads, the non-royal gents they married.

It has come to be this way because the focus of privilege has shifted away from the few to the many. This has taken place since the new queen's grandfather—
the grandson of England's beloved Victoria—began his reign before World War I.

Not that there no longer are any women who dream of being queen, but only that midway in the 20th century the reality of queenship has nothing to do with dreams. Perhaps it never did.
Perhaps it was only commoners
who thought of it that way.

But today the commoners themselves are the rulers.
The princes and princesses of privilege are the little people who have found under the bright

sun of freedom the light and warmth of human dignity—so much so that even kings and queens flatter them with imitation.

No longer can despotism be loosed on its victims by the mumbo-jumbo of divine right. It is inflicted, where it cannot be shaken loose, by the sick minds
of ordinary men who merely ape
the worst which ever came from the most depraved monarchs of old, with no thought of imitating
the most enlightened monarchs
of the present.

May Queen Elizabeth be as true to her trust as Victoria was to hers. The queen belongs to more than Britain. She belongs to all of us who have rejected
despotism because we have found something better—the freedom to fight despots.

We are the rulers, not the ruled. Long live the kings and queens!

Congressional Quiz

Q—Would legislation to give
home rule to the District of Columbia permit Washingtonians to vote in the coming presidential election?

A—No. Although those holding legal residence in states which permit absentee balloting could vote in national elections by mailing ballot slips to their home towns, other D. C. residents could not vote for President, Senator or Representative. The home rule
bill which passed the Senate Jan.
22 would let Washington elect and run its own government and send a non-voting delegate to Congress.

Q—What's the smallest federal debt on record?

A—According to Treasury Department data on the size of the debt at the end of each year from 1790 to the present, the rock bottom was $37,513 in 1835. The U.S.
ended the year 1790 owing $75.5
million and first went in the red $1 billion in 1863. The federal debt hit $12.2 billion in 1918, $12.4 billion in 1919, $72.4 billion in 1942, and ended fiscal 1946 at $269.4 billion after setting the alltime high of $279.2 billion earlier that year.

Gasparilla

By HAL BOYLE

Pirate Inspires A Frolic

TAMPA

THE PIRATE PAST lives again here in one of the nation's greatest festivals.

It is the carnival of Gasparilla, a five-day holiday of fun and frolic inspired by the deeds and misdeeds of legendary old Jose Gaspar, the bloodiest buc-caneer who ever fed an honest sailor to the sharks.

The fete is Florida's equivalent of the Mardi Gras. Each year it draws crowds estimated by police at 500,000 to 600,000. People drive up to 200 miles or more
to see it, wait up all night
in parked cars in order to have a good vantage point
for the parade.

To tourists the celebration is a high point
of the winter season.

IT IS BEGUN by a mock invasion of the city by Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla. They are some 350 Tampa business and social leaders dressed as freebooters, complete with cutlasses and black eye patches.

After landing yesterday, they led a parade of 58 colorful floats, 35 bands, and thousands of marchers to the state fairgrounds.

They arrived in two small vessels because the old three-masted sailing ship used in other years had become unseaworthy. At least one bystander thought this was a mistake.

"If the Krewe had sailed in that old ship
and she sank," he mused, "there'd have been a lot of nice jobs open in Tampa tomorrow."

However, the pirates made it ashore
safely with no casualties except knee bruises
and began firing pistols. With a stock of 50,000 blank cartridges to shoot up, they promised a noisy five days.

Tonight at a coronation ball the city's social king and queen will be crowned. Tomorrow 7,000 children will march in a parade
symbolizing the unity of American's 48 states.
The pirate band will lead a torchlight parade
Thursday through Ybor City, Tampa's Spanish section. On Saturday they board ship
again and sail away, ending the festival.

"AND ALL NEXT" week the men will be so tired and quiet you could hear a pin
drop anywhere in the city," one wife said.

The festival, begun in 1904 and financed by a wealthy cigar manufacturer, surprised and pleased the city. It has grown each year until now civic groups chip in some $250,000
to make it a success.

"There is no purpose behind it except for everyone to have a little fun," said one man. That is why it is so popular.

The mock celebration of his exploits must amaze the ghost of old Jose Gaspar, if he was half the scoundrel he is credited with being.

He is reputed to have been a Spanish
naval lieutenant who led a mutiny, formed
his own pirate band, and looted and sunk at least 36 merchant vessels after forcing their crews to walk the plank. During a visit ashore he is said to have slit his pretty wife's throat because she objected to one of his business transactions.

AT THE AGE of 65, the story goes, old Jose must have gotten nearsighted, because in 1821 he attacked a U.S. naval brig disguised as a merchant ship. Soon his own ship was full of cannon holes, Gaspar wrapped a chain around him, leaped overboard and drowned rather than attend the hemp neck-tie party he knew would be held in his honor.

Today you can buy a map giving the
most likely sites where he buried his gold,
and a lot of people buy them. But last year
Florida passed a law that the state was entitled to its share of any buried treasure dug up.

Hereabouts this is widely regarded as the most useless statute on the books.

"If I was lucky enough to lay my hands
on any of old Gaspar's gold," said on fellow,
"I can't imagine myself being so dumb as to write a bragging postcard about it to the Florida legislature."

WHY REPEAT THE SAME MISTAKES OF 2,000 YEARS AGO ...

-WHICH CAUSED THE

ROMAN REPUBLIC TO COLLAPSE IN 40 B.C.

-AND WHICH MADE

JULIUS CAESAR A MILITARY DICTATOR

WHY DO WE MAKE THE SAME MISTAKES AS THE ROMANS, WHO FAILED TO UNDERSTAND AND INSIST ON A MORAL PURPOSE FOR THEIR GOVERNMENT?

YOU HAVE a natural right — from God — to protect your Life, Liberty and Property. These are the three basic requirements for making your own living. These three gifts of God were given you with the responsibility for your own existence. And keeping any one of them is dependent on the other two. Isn't your LIBERTY to use the talents and faculties with which you were born an extension of your God-given INDIVIDUALITY? Isn't your PROPERTY an extension of the LIBERTY to use your God-given faculties?

If every individual has the right to protect his God-given Life, Liberty and Property, then a group of men have the right to organize and support a common force — a government — to protect these rights constantly.

Thus, a moral government must be formed on individual God-given rights, so —

THE PURPOSE OF OUR GOVERNMENT MUST BE —

"TO MAKE AND ENFORCE LAWS WHICH PROTECT EVERY INDIVIDUAL'S GOD-GIVEN LIFE, LIBERTY AND PROPERTY FROM THE INTERFERENCE OF ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP — AND THESE LAWS MUST ALSO PROTECT THE PEOPLE FROM GOVERNMENT ITSELF."

All history proves that when a government does not have this purpose it becomes immoral.

Since an individual cannot lawfully use force against the Life, Liberty or Property of another individual, — then a moral government cannot lawfully be used to destroy the God-given Life, Liberty or Property of individuals or groups.

ROMANS MADE THESE MISTAKES ABOUT 2,000 YEARS AGO —

1. FARMERS WERE GIVEN LAND WHICH WAS PAID FOR FROM THE TAXES OF OTHER PEOPLE.
2. BUSINESS MEN AND WAGE-EARNERS WERE PAID FOR PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAMS, WHICH WERE CREATED FOR THE BENEFIT OF PRIVILEGED GROUPS BUT PAID FOR FROM THE TAXES OF OTHERS.
3. PEOPLE, WHO DIDN'T WORK, WERE SOLD WHEAT AT $\frac{1}{10}$ TO $\frac{1}{2}$ THE MARKET PRICE. THIS WAS PAID FOR FROM THE TAXES OF OTHERS.

ROMANS LET THE FORCE OF THEIR GOVERNMENT TAKE AWAY THE PROPERTY AND LIBERTY OF SOME PEOPLE, TO PROVIDE AIDS AND SPECIAL SERVICES TO OTHERS

Copyright 1951, F. W. Overesch

AMERICANS ARE MAKING THE SAME MISTAKES TODAY! FOR IN 1950 —

1. FARMERS WERE GIVEN OVER 2 BILLION DOLLARS FOR PRICE SUPPORTS, SUBSIDIES AND LOANS, WHICH CAME FROM THE TAXES OF OTHER PEOPLE.
2. BUSINESS MEN AND WAGE-EARNERS WERE PAID OVER 9 BILLION DOLLARS FOR PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAMS, WHICH WERE CREATED FOR THE BENEFIT OF PRIVILEGED GROUPS BUT PAID FOR FROM THE TAXES OF OTHERS.
3. PEOPLE, WHO DIDN'T WORK, WERE GIVEN OVER ONE BILLION DOLLARS FOR SPECIAL ASSISTANCE — PAID FOR FROM THE TAXES OF OTHERS

LIKE THE ROMANS, AMERICANS ALSO LET THEIR GOVERNMENT TAKE AWAY THE PROPERTY AND LIBERTY OF SOME PEOPLE FOR THE SPECIAL BENEFIT OF OTHERS

IF FREEDOM IS TO SURVIVE, EACH ONE OF US MUST INSIST ON A MORAL PURPOSE FOR OUR GOVERNMENT

Henceroth-Huston Nuptials Held Sunday At Bride's Home

THE HENCEROTH HOME on the Teegarden Rd. was the scene of the wedding of Miss Wanda Jane Henceroth and Donald Eugene Huston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Huston, also of the Teegarden Rd. at 3 o'clock Sunday.

Snapdragons and carnations, all in bridal white, were arranged in front of a bank of palms and the couple were married in that setting by Rev. D. G. Stewart, pastor of Phillips Christian Church. The traditional music, "Because" and Lohengrin Bridal Chorus was used.

Given by Father

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Henceroth, was given in marriage by her father. Guests from Ashtabula, Cortland, Cleveland, Columbiana, and Salem witnessed the double ring ceremony.

Gowned in white satin and nylon net, the bride carried a white Bible covered with white roses and showered with baby carnations and satin ribbon.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Henceroth chose a black dress and a red feathered carnation corsage. Mrs. Huston wore a grey frock complemented with pink carnations and feather flowers.

Greeted Friends

The newlyweds greeted their friends and relatives at the reception. The buffet table was beautifully appointed in pink and white and laid with a lace cloth. A miniature bridal pair topped the wedding cake.

Dressed in a white wool suit, the bride also wore the carnations from her wedding bouquet for a short honeymoon trip. They plan to spend a month in Florida upon their return.

Mrs. Huston is a graduate of Salem High School and Youngstown Ohio School of Beauty. Mr. Huston also is a graduate of Salem High School, and the DeForest Training Institute of Chicago.

superstition in this enlightened age

Do you STILL BURY a dishrag to remove a wart on your finger? Perhaps not, but some do. Yes, even asafetida is still worn on a string about the neck to ward off illness.

These cases are extreme, but surprisingly superstitious notions about disease and treatment are held in this enlightened age.

Before you accept secondhand statements that hint of witchcraft, consult your physician. He alone is competent to evaluate methods of prevention and treatment of disease.

Antibiotics Not Cause
Of 2 Children's Deaths

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Asthma and bronchial pneumonia killed two small children whose deaths originally were blamed on antibiotics, autopsies have disclosed.

Dr. Edward M. Butt, chief pathologist at General Hospital, said yesterday there was no evidence that any antibiotic administered to either of the children caused death. He said that Carole Ann Whitlock, 18 months, had been administered chloromycetin, but succumbed Sunday to bronchial pneumonia, and that Jackson Lee Beakley, 2, given aureomycin, died of asthma.

Physicians who attended the children refused to sign death certificates, pending an investigation.

Middies, Hamilton Big Blue Meet Friday In Return Test

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS (AP)—Middletown in Class A and Miller City in Class B clung to the top spots today in the weekly Associated Press high school basketball poll.

In fact, 19 of last week's top 20 were still up there. Wellsville's once-beaten team, triggered by high-scoring Bevo Francis, jumped from 15th to ninth place in Class A as Springfield's off-beaten Wildcats fell out of the select list after a 78-54 loss to Middletown.

The Middies racked up 21 of 35 first place votes and an even 300 points on the 10-9.8 etc. basis. Unbeaten Steubenville and defending champion Columbus East had four first place votes for runner-up positions in that department.

Hamilton's Big Blue didn't get a first-place nod, but wound up second in the voting with 228 points. Hamilton and Middletown stage the second of their Butler County classics Friday night in Cincinnati Garden, and more than 10,000 are expected to watch the rivals in action.

The Middies won the previous clash 66-49 before 9,185 fans, but Hamilton hopes to turn the tables. Mayor George Radcliffe has officially proclaimed this "Beat The Middies Week," and basketball rallies are practically an hourly occurrence as the city of 60,000 backs its boys.

Hamilton had a tough time last week against Portsmouth, nosing out the Trojans 73-69 in an overtime to break a seven-year jinx enjoyed by Portsmouth on its home floor. Hamilton had smothered Portsmouth 66-32 on the Big Blue boards.

THIS IS a big week in Class B circles as county championship tournaments are scheduled all over the state. Grand Rapids, the Class B king, eased through two Wood County tests last week for an 18-2 record.

Lockland Wayne, No. 2 in the Class B poll, was handed a 36-35 defeat by Delphos St. John, the 1949 champion. The week's big upset, however, was Mt. Vernon's 46-44 win which halted Newark's 14-game streak—Newark had beaten the all-junior club 63-41 in a previous tilt at Mt. Vernon.

Three other unblemished records went into discard as Big Prairie ended Killbuck's 13-game stretch. New London halted Huron at 14, and Pleasant stopped Morral at 17.

FINDLAY'S TROJANS, shorn of much of their glory through forfeiture of most of their games, held Fremont Ross to two field goals in winning 36-12—probably the season's outstanding defensive feat.

Robin Freeman of Cincinnati Hughes was "held" to 31 points by Cincinnati Withrow, lowering his 16-game average to a mere 38.5.

Also on the individual front, Phil Wheeler of Cincinnati Western Hills scored 44 and 24 last week to boost his average to almost 25; Clarence (Bevo) Francis of Wellsville came up with 42 and 35 to hike his average to 28.7, and Floyd Wolf of Loudonville got 41.

OTHER HIGH COUNTERS included Bill Gehres of Wren, 38; Lloyd Guley of Harrison, 36; Sam Stipanovic of Youngstown Chaney, 35, 29 and 15; Stan Holt-house of New Haven, Eddie Jordan of Sebring, and Dick Coder of Marysville, 33; Larry Dodd of Crestline, and Willie Ernest of Cincinnati Withrow, 32, and Bill Dunn of Chesterville, Don Kelley of Cardington, Don Heydt of Ottawa Hills and Mercer of Pioneer, 30.

A bunch of youngsters, lacking funds, eased through a window at Marion's Coliseum to see the Elm Valley-Marion St. Mary game, and found themselves in the ladies' rest room... Eddie Copcus of Jackson Township scored two points to help whip Rising Sun 32-28 in the Wood County tournament—Eddie plays with a wooden leg, a moving machine having amputated his left limb just below the knee several years ago.

Joe Keifer, Grand Rapids' little all-tournament guard of last year, contributed 22 points in the 45-43 win over Weston... Columbus East has won 31 in a row, 15 this season... Lancaster Guard Tommy Hall scored a fielder for Newark Friday night, but the Wildcats won 48-40 so it didn't matter... Mansfield halted Sandusky's six-game spurt by 91-55, hitting on 40 of 80 shots from the field, for a new school record.

SALEM HAS BROKEN even in 14 games, but ran up a 98-64 score over Louisville, highest ever made by the Quakers coached by John Cabas... Warren Harding's loss to Youngstown South Saturday was the ninth in a row, longest drought in Panther history... Wayne Township defeated Randolph 31-26 for the Montgomery County title Friday, but Randolph held fourth

Three District Teams Beaten

Bobcats Lose, 41-38; Goshen, Beloit Lose

Three district teams, Greenford, Beloit and Goshen Union lost last night in the initial Class B double-elimination cage tournament of Mahoning County at Struthers.

Greenford's Bobcats, holder of a 14-4 record for the regular season, took their third defeat 41-38, at the hands of mighty Canfield after holding a 19-11 lead at the quarter.

However, the Cardinals duplicated their first period and garnered 11 more markers in the second stanza while Greenford was helpless and got only three points, tying the count at half-time 22-22.

The Cardinals held a five-point lead going into the final quarter by outscoring their opponents, 10-5, in the third frame. Outscored 11-9 in the final period, the Cardinals still remained on top as the final buzzer rang.

Charles Hunter led both outfits with a 13-point total for the Bobcat quintet while Keith West and Rod Payne tallied 12 and 10 for the winning Cardinals.

GOSHEN UNION lost to Springfield, 49-25, after trailing all the way. The Springfield five opened with an 11-2 advantage at the quarter and the gap widened, 19-11 at halftime.

Goshen kept up fairly well in the third frame but the last period clinched the victory for the Springfield outfit as they outscored the Unioners, 17-9.

Bill Brian led the winners to the victory with 17 markers while Carson McNeeley caged 10 for the losers.

Beloit was swamped under a 24-10 second period as Lowellville sandwiched the quintet, 64-35.

Beloit trailed throughout the entire game as Lowellville scored in double figures in each quarter. The winners held a 20-point lead at halftime, 38-18, and the Beloit five never overcame the winners after the first quarter.

Dick Dorsey and Bob Haupts led the Beloit scorers with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Kentucky Holds No. 1 College Cage Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Kentucky, already crowned Southeastern Conference champions and assured an NCAA playoff berth, enters the final phase of the college basketball season still ranked as the No. 1 team of the nation.

The Wildcats head the field in the Associated Press poll for the fourth straight week and the only stumbling block remaining in their path appears to be DePaul.

Kentucky drew 42 first-place votes and 887 points from the 103 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the poll. Kansas State remained in second place. Kansas collected 14 first-place votes and 737 points.

Duquesne, only major unbeaten team in the land, moved from fifth to third place, less than 100 points behind Kansas State. St. Bonaventure (16-1) remained in fourth place. Iowa (15-1) moved from ninth to fifth place while Illinois dropped from third to sixth.

St. Louis held in seventh place, Washington eighth and St. John's of Brooklyn tenth. Kansas fell from sixth to ninth place.

Lopez Hopes To Repair Hitting In '52; Pitching In Fine Shape

By AL LOPEZ

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—It is no secret why we didn't win the pennant. It was because of our lack of hitting.

With the hitters failing to come through, it placed too much of a burden on the shoulders of our pitchers.

That's our biggest repair job for 1952—to improve our hitting.

I am optimistic enough to expect that to happen. You've got to remember that Luke Easter missed more than a month because of a bad knee and that Larry Doby was nursing injured legs practically all season.

With Easter's knee and Doby's legs in shape, I don't see how we can fail to improve our hitting. They are two of our biggest guns. If you don't believe how important Luke's big bat was to us, just look at the figures. The Indians played nearly 700 ball with Easter in the lineup and bled 400 without him.

Easter's knee is sound again. I'm happy to say. The operation he had after the season was a success and I hope that the big man will be able to give us nine full innings every day this season.

I THINK our infield will be stronger. It improved greatly the second half of the season after a slow start. I believe we had the best infield in the league in September. I look for improved play from Bobby Avila, Ray Boone and Al Rosen. Al did his usual good job at third.

Our pitching will be good, of course. We have Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, Early Wynn, Mike Garcia, Steve Gromek, Bob Chakales and Lou Brissie back. We have a fine young prospect in Sam Jones. He is a big 6-4 righthander who won 16 games for San Diego, a sixth place club, last year. He looked good in his only start for us last September.

We have acquired a young catcher by the name of Joe Matalvo from the Seattle club. He, too, is a giant, standing 6-4, and weighing more than 200 pounds. He batted .287 on the coast. Our scouts say he has great ability.

I BELIEVE some of the other clubs have improved but I think the Yankees and Red Sox will be weaker. You can't lose men like Joe DiMaggio and Bobby Doerr and not feel it. And if Ted Williams goes back into service... Detroit will be stronger as will Philadelphia and St. Louis. The Tigers will have Art Houtteman, their fine young pitcher, back. The Browns have brought up a lot of good Minor League players. Those ever-hustling White Sox will be tough to handle.

The team to beat, though, is still the Yankees. No matter how good Mickey Mantle or Jackie Jensen are neither can replace DiMaggio. Joe was an inspirational ball player and the Yankees are not going to look the same without him.

Taft And Eisenhower Get 7 Delegates Each In Oklahoma

By The Associated Press

Cries of "a great victory" and "start fighting" spurred the backers of two entrants today in the Republicans' race for the presidency. It was a day—the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth—when Republicans everywhere take stock and, in an election year like this, get primed for the back stretch drive.

In Oklahoma City, a field manager for Senator Taft hailed the outcome of Oklahoma's Republican state convention yesterday as "a great victory for Taft." The session wound up with seven nominating delegates pledged to Taft, seven to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and two to Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Victor A. Johnson predicted that 12 of the 16 Oklahoma delegates would vote for Taft on the first ballot at the national convention in July.

In Washington, Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) said of General Eisenhower:

"Unless he starts fighting, he's dead duck. He is going to have to come home and campaign if he wants the nomination. If he doesn't he will be leaving a lot of his promoters out on a very long limb."

Eisenhower, who heads mutual defense forces in Europe, has said he will accept the GOP nomination but will not seek it. Aiken has not said whom he favors.

Lincoln Day speeches were scheduled today by Taft at Seattle, on his northwest tour, and by two other GOP aspirants, Harold Stassen and Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and president-on-leave of the University of Pennsylvania, talks at Salt Lake City.

Warren addresses a dinner gathering in Boston.

The Democratic race also was moving along. The only announced entrant, Senator Kefauver of Tennessee, made two appearances yesterday in New York and repeats today in Chicago.

In the Chicago address, for delivery at a meeting of the Inland Daily Press Association, Kefauver said:

"The corrupt politician threatens our democratic system on one front just as Communism threatens it on another front."

Political corruption has a profound faith in our democracy," Kefauver told a television (CBS) audience he is "running on my own." He said, however, that he hoped generally to extend the philosophies of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Truman.

Earlier, on a local TV show in New York, he contended that to say a Southerner can't be elected president "is to deny that a Southerner is a full-fledged American."

Taft addressed a GOP luncheon crowd yesterday in Spokane, Wash., saying Republicans must have a presidential candidate who would enthrone party workers by "presenting the issues clearly." He left no doubt he considered himself such a candidate.

Stassen told newsmen in Oklahoma City he hopes to become a compromise candidate at the GOP national convention. "My chances are steadily improving," he said. "No one has a cinch."

Foods which supply the greatest proportion of the world's calorie requirements, with the amount of energy contributed by each expressed in trillions of calories, are rice 900, wheat 382, sugar 209, rye 164, barley 119, potatoes 99, and meat 62.

The figures were presented to House Appropriations Committee hearings by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder in testimony made public today.

Snyder requested a total of $16,267,900,000 to finance the Treasury Department during the coming fiscal year.

The immediate future in the industrial field is the reverse: 3½ million more workers will be needed in the next two years to fill defense and civilian manpower needs, according to Secretary of Labor Tobin.

Tobin said his job estimate is based on present production and military recruitment schedules. He said to meet needs, the total labor force must be expanded by an estimated 1,200,000 to 67,700,000 by the end of the year. New workers probably will be recruited from housewives and retired workers.

Second Lieut. John W. Works, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Works, of 1099 S. Lincoln Ave., was commissioned during graduation exercises held at Fort Riley, Kans., Feb. 6 for Army Officers Candidate Class No. 40.

Commissioned in the Organized Reserve Corps, Lieut. Works will now attend school for his branch of service before being assigned to a permanent unit or installation.

Time To Buy Items For Air Force Cut

DAYTON (AP) — The Air Force now is able to buy items costing less than $10,000 in one-sixth the time.

The Air Materiel Command says its new small purchases branch at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton has been able to cut contract processing time from 120 days to 20 days or less.

The branch buys 172 items such as ladders, voltmeters, office equipment, electric switches, and wire and cable which don't have to be inspected until they arrive.

New contract forms also help. Standard conditions have been cut from 22 items to nine on contracts under $1,000, and to 28 on contracts between $1,000 to $10,000.

"By using these short cuts, it is possible to send a contractor a contract within five days after quotations have been received," says Major Oscar L. Maier, head of the new branch.

If bids are required, they can be processed and contracts issued within three weeks, he added.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury fixed "overhead" money the government is obligated to pay—will amount to $15,574,900,000 for the 1953 fiscal year starting July 1.

Of this, $6,150,000,000 will go to pay the interest on the public debt alone. This is an increase of 300 million dollars over the previous year.

The figures were presented to House Appropriations Committee hearings by Secretary of the Treasury Snyder in testimony made public today.

Snyder requested a total of $16,267,900,000 to finance the Treasury Department during the coming fiscal year.

Dr. Smith Is Speaker At Hanoverton

HANOVERTON — The Granges, Churches, Agriculture Association, Farm Bureau and Homemakers chorus of one of the groups in Columbiana County including approximately three townships are sponsoring a lecture and tea to be held in the Presbyterian Church auditorium and basement tonight at 8 p. m.

Dr. Merwin Smith, extension specialist from Ohio State University will be the speaker and his topic will be "What Is The World's Number One Job These Days." Smith will give figures and facts and show slides during the course of his lecture. Public is invited.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Revolutionary new labor-saving farm devices promise a new era of plenty but at the same time threaten to put 3½ million farm workers out of jobs by 1970, a Senate survey says.

It said the United States must prepare for this "social and economic disruption . . . no less than against the dangers of armed aggression."

The immediate future in the industrial field is the reverse: 3½ million more workers will be needed in the next two years to fill defense and civilian manpower needs, according to Secretary of Labor Tobin.

Cvetic Says Reds Enroll Students

Party In Ohio Seeks Members In Schools

COLUMBUS (AP)—An organization is operating in Ohio's colleges and high schools to lead students into the Communist party, a former FBI agent said yesterday.

Matthew Cvetic of Pittsburgh, testifying before the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission, said the organization is the Labor Youth League (LYL). He said it was formed on direct orders from Stalin in 1949.

In 1950, Cvetic testified, the LYL had 276 members in Ohio, including 24 in colleges and 21 in high schools.

Last Jan. 15, he said, the LYL distributed its official tabloid style newspaper, "New Challenge," at John Adams High School in Cleveland.

Cvetic, who was a Communist for the FBI from 1943 to 1950, said the LYL keeps its members secret. They distribute literature to students, and talk with those who seem impressed. The most likely prospects they invite to social functions, lead into the league, and eventually into the party.

Cvetic said the LYL was an arm of the Communist party, rather than a front organization. He described the American Peace Crusade as a Communist front—one which the Communists gain control of to use for subversion.

But he said the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born and the Civil Rights Congress are arms of the party. The International Workers Order, he said, is a propaganda front and the insurance arm of the party.

Lisbon Board Hires Home Ec. Teacher

LISBON—The board of education Monday night hired Miss Josephine Davis of near Salineville as home economics teacher, succeeding Mrs. Edgar Hoopes who resigned. Miss Davis also will teach Junior High art.

In other action the board authorized V. J. Ullman, superintendent, to buy supplemental reading texts for the elementary grades, approved an automatic pay increase for John Piper, the custodian hired in September, and authorized special bills in connection with the construction of a vocational agriculture annex. Work on the addition has been halted temporarily pending state approval of a change in plans.

PASTURE PROGRAM TO OPEN

Earl Jones, extension agronomist at Ohio State University will discuss pasture work at the morning session and each farmer will work on his pasture plan in the afternoon.

which has "great aims and ends of life," he declared.

Religion Greatest Hope
He believes "what America does in the next few years will shape the destiny of the world," for it is the most powerful nation today. The course it weaves, he said, will influence the outcome of the 20th century, the bloodiest in history.

Dr. Sockman opined: "Religion is our greatest hope for peace. We need power—faith—to keep going; it is one thing to have faith and another thing to have a faith."

The theologian summed up his faith in one sentence, taken from the writings of James Russell Lowell: "I take great comfort in God because He wouldn't let man get at the matchbox of the universe unless He knew the framework is fireproof."

He stressed closer understanding among nations due to the nearness of each other. "We need more imperatively today imagination (ability to understand other peoples' differences) rather than information (knowledge of the day-by-day operation of nations by the rulers)," he commented.

Dr. Sockman said "community spirit (cooperation) is the best defense against communism. We must be able to live together." He noted increasing pessimism among Americans, who seemed to have no set goal in life and carry the attitude on to their offspring.

"Youth of today need a sense of mission—a philosophy of life that is bigger than the individual and not prompted by selfish motives," he concluded.

Lincoln delivered his Gettysburg Address, Nov. 19, 1863, on the occasion of the dedication of a military cemetery.
